

A romantic wedding photograph featuring a bride and groom embracing in front of a massive waterfall. The bride is wearing a long, flowing white gown, and the groom is in a light-colored suit. They are standing on a dark, rocky shore. The waterfall is the central focus, cascading down a dark, mossy cliff. The overall mood is serene and intimate.

sharing stories, shaping memories

WHY, HELLO THERE!

My name is Germaine, a Singapore-based wedding photographer and the creator of Bridelope Productions. I am first and foremost a believer in the magic of life and love, and I am passionate about creating imagery, sharing stories, and shaping memories.

I've loved shooting people from the time I first picked up a camera, capturing genuine moments and raw emotions of relationships and personalities. That is why wedding photography has such a special place in my heart.

Having the ability to stamp numerous beautiful moments in time on one of the most memorable days of a couple's lifetime together exemplifies the power of photography for me.

Delighting in the love, the emotions, the hugs, the tears, the start of something new – all while keeping it real and close to each and every couple's unique dynamic – that drives me to keep perfecting and growing in my art to become the best partner on your special day.

I've been a wedding photographer for 3 years now and I am deeply grateful for all the trust that my couples have placed in me by letting me share in their big day. Follow along, check out some of my past works, and drop me a note if I could have the honour to play a small part in your love story x

MEET THE SENIORS

REBECCA

My journey as a photographer began eight years ago when I first picked up the camera for a module in school. Over the years, I've been truly blessed to be able to work with a camera and delve into multiple fields of photography. However, the one area that captivated me and got me instantly connected was wedding photography. During my first shoot, there was in the quiet morning while preparing for the gatecrash that I looked over at the bride and thought to myself that this was my calling, my passion, and I wanted to be a part of something amazing, and do my best for the couple.

Till today, I still feel the same way. Each wedding I shoot is an absolute delight to be able to photograph because no two weddings are exactly the same, and each couple goes through different emotions. As cheesy as it sounds, it always feels like my first time again, because of how unique each couple's connection is! Because of how special each second in time is, every time I photograph something it's always about capturing authentic and personal moments that cannot be recreated. And because of this reason, photography holds so much meaning as it immortalizes these moments that are close to us and gives us the chance to revisit these points in our lives, even when memory and words may fail.

What do I enjoy photographing the most?

My absolute favourite types of shoots are usually at warm, private settings such as couple's homes, hotels or cosy little cafes. I love it when I'm in an safe space with couples where they can completely be themselves and express a level of connection that translates beautifully into photographs. But of course, shoots should also be an exciting experience! A good balance of intimate and fun shots would be a perfect mix to really enjoy the process and create magical memories.

XAVIER

My passion for photography started when I realised that photography is an extremely valuable asset in our lives that helps us recount our stories and remember special moments. As a person, I have always been more comfortable expressing myself using photos instead of words, and therefore the saying "a picture speaks a thousand words" rings true to me.

Venturing into wedding photography has allowed me to share the story of each couple, from the very first meeting to the day of marriage, and each photo I snap is like a chapter of their love story. I always believe that capturing these precious moments is the best way for couples to look back and relive each memory from beginning to the present.

To share a little more about myself, I am also an avid fan of movies (except for anything that falls in the genre of horror), running marathons and trekking to explore and discover new scenic places.

What do I enjoy photographing the most?

I love the art of capturing fleeting moments in time. Hence I enjoy taking photos of weddings – the big day itself! I try to capture the day's candid and intimate moments – laughter from the heart, loving gestures between the couple, genuine reactions during the celebration.

MEET THE ASSOCIATE

ALEXIS

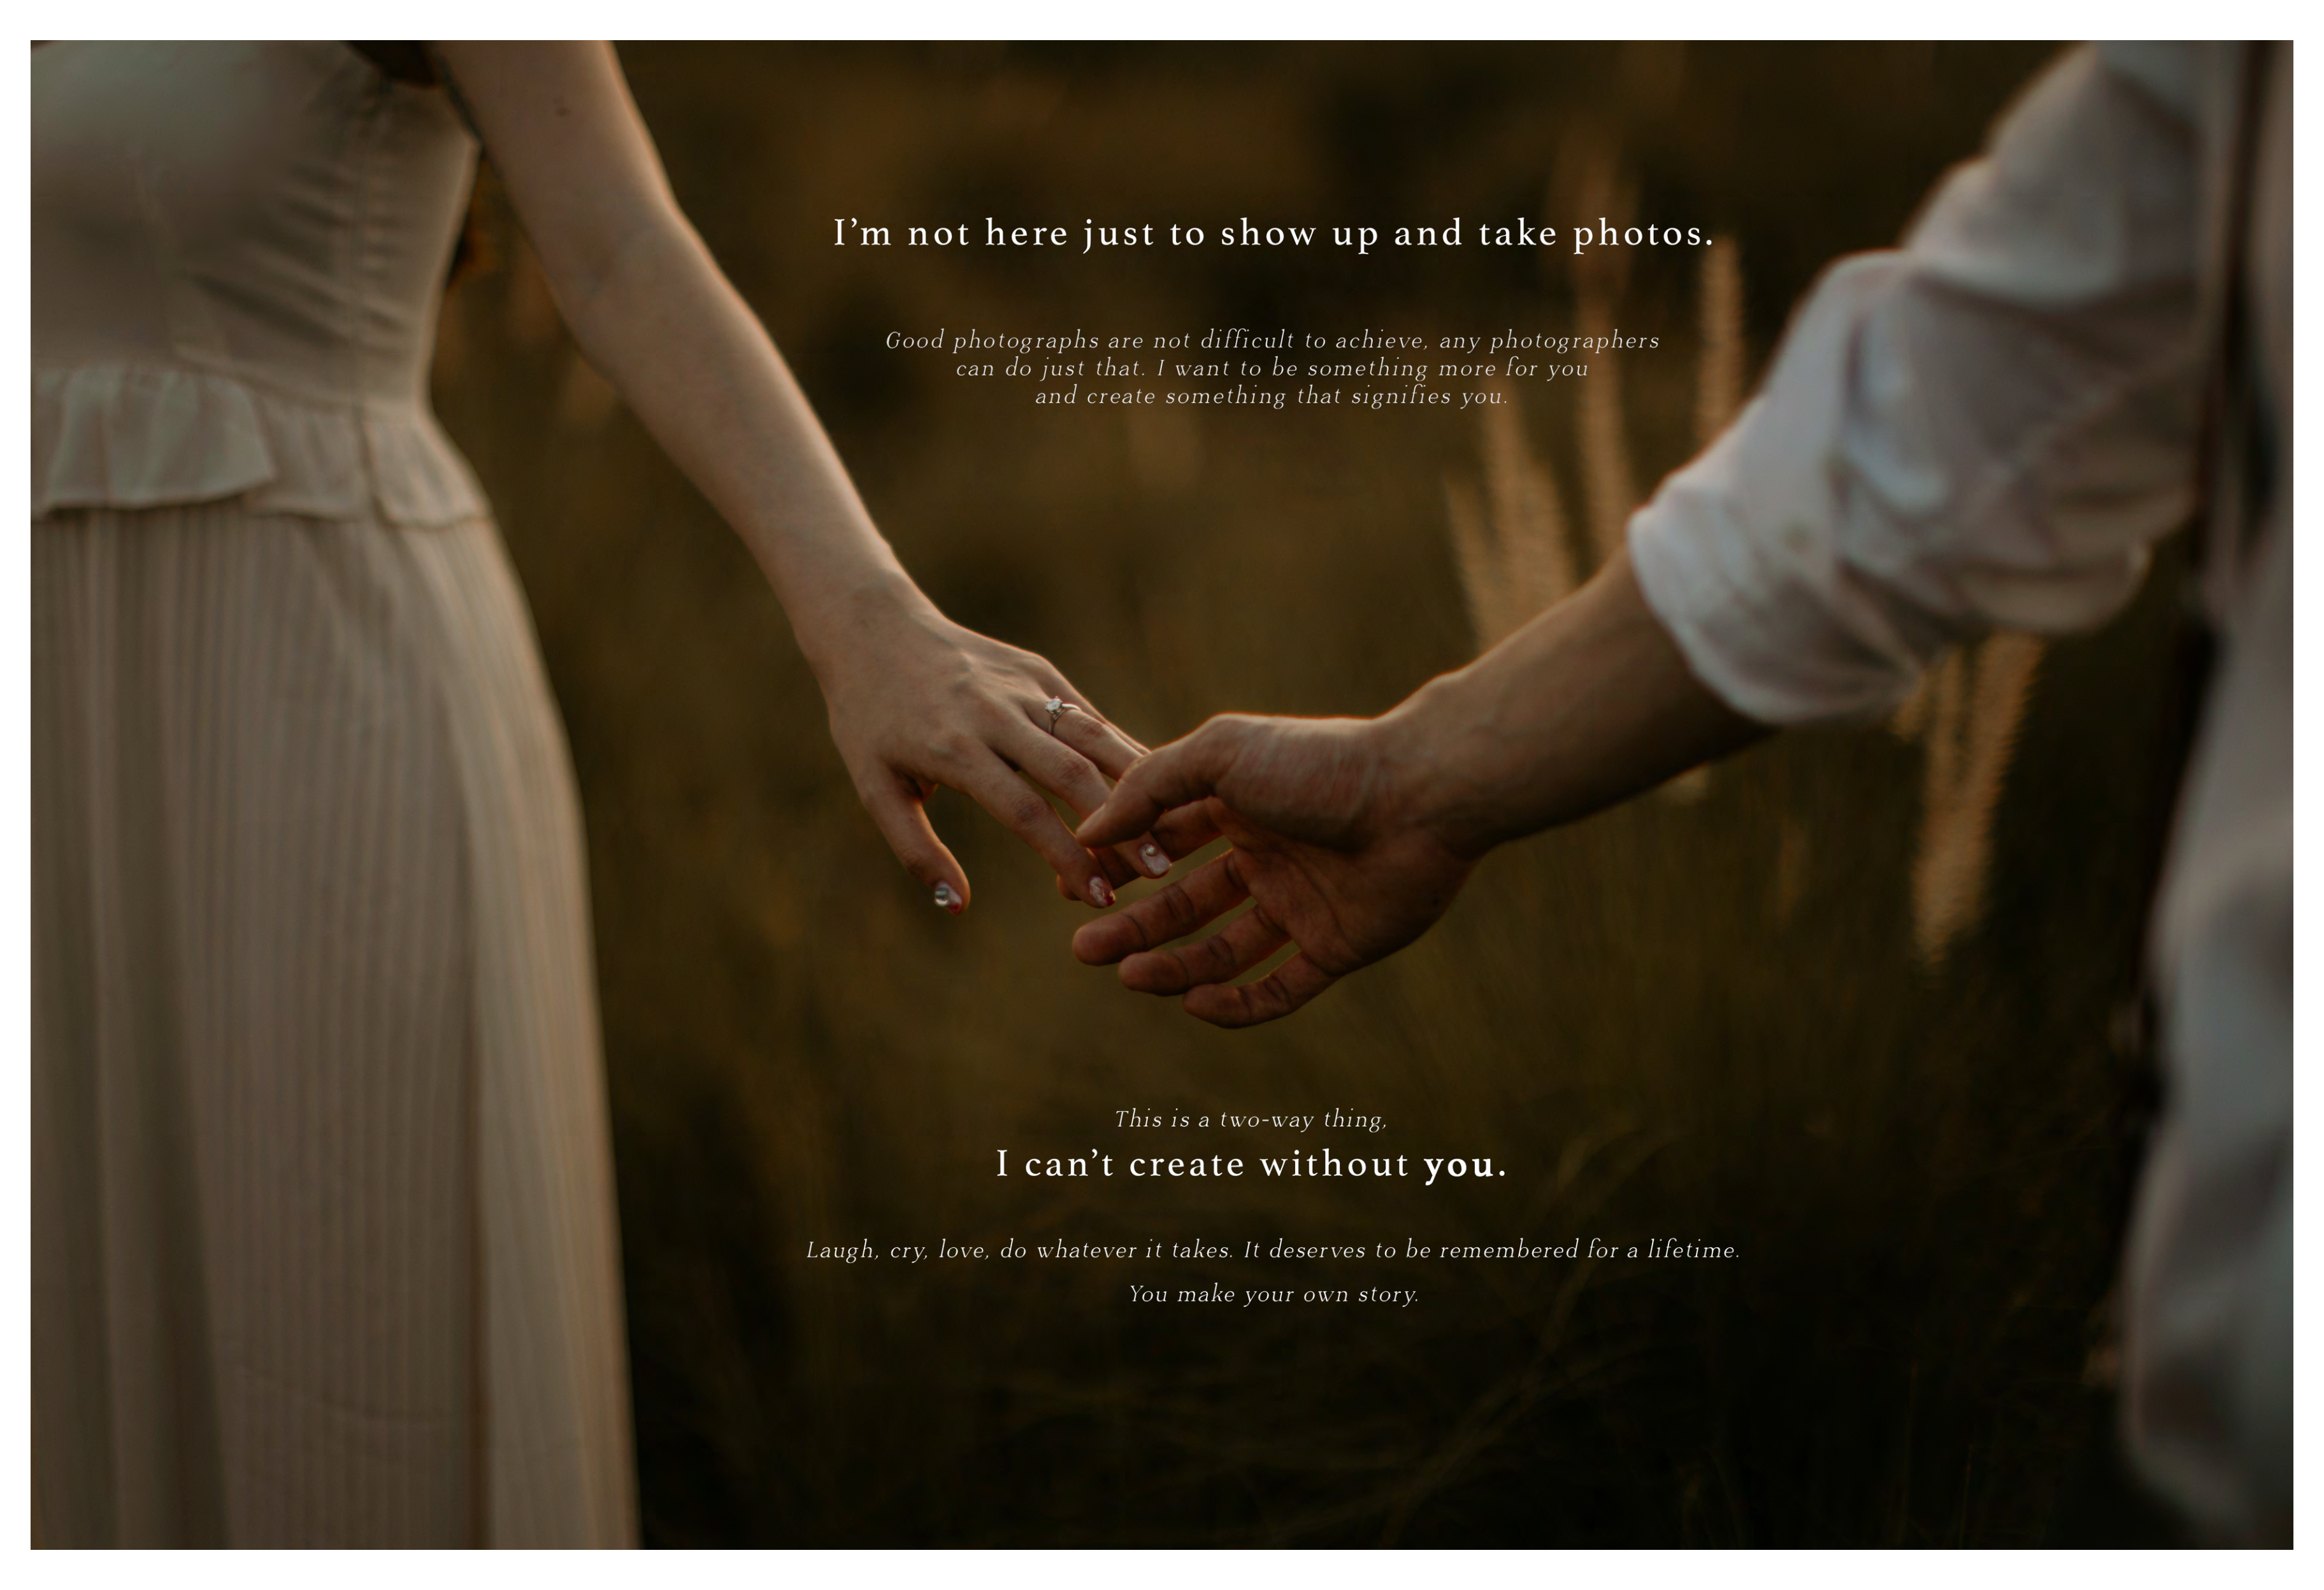

I first dabbled in photography in my first stint as a creative producer in the media industry. I bought a camera on the side, merely intending to improve my skills in my job. However, I found myself falling hard with the satisfaction of capturing the perfect portrait shot. I captured everyday people in their jobs, which included seeing them in their natural elements. What was seemingly mundane to them, turned out to be special moments suspended in time. It changes their perspective on life, and I learned the power of photography to transform our memories of experiences.

What more with weddings, arguably the most momentous occasion of our lives? When I meet couples who seem intimidated by the idea of being photographed, I see an opportunity to have them realise how beautiful they can be through the lens. I love capturing them in their essence, showing them how they shine the brightest just being themselves and being lost in their own world.

What do I enjoy photographing the most?

I love the most offbeat of locations, such as rooftops, container parks, and abandoned buildings. My background is in dance and music, and the pieces that spoke to me most were stylised in contrast. When you place a loving and exquisite couple in the backdrop of an unconventional setting, it exercises our creativity to create personalised moments. I believe such dynamic experience becomes a special memory for the couple for years to come.

I'm not here just to show up and take photos.

Good photographs are not difficult to achieve, any photographers can do just that. I want to be something more for you and create something that signifies you.

This is a two-way thing.

I can't create without you.

Laugh, cry, love, do whatever it takes. It deserves to be remembered for a lifetime.

You make your own story.

A romantic couple embracing at sunset. The woman has long dark hair with a floral crown and is wearing a white strapless dress. The man is wearing a white button-down shirt. They are both smiling and looking at each other. The background is a bright sunset with a wooden fence and a blurred cityscape.

A romantic engagement photograph set in a high-altitude mountain landscape. A bride in a white gown and a groom in a dark suit stand on a large, flat rock in the foreground, holding hands and looking at each other. The background is dominated by a massive, jagged mountain peak covered in snow and partially shrouded in mist. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

OVERSEAS ENGAGEMENT

Let's explore favourite corners of the world

WE LOVE TRAVELLING

especially to exotic places.

We are constantly looking for someone to explore places with us, so if you have weird ideas at random parts of the world we will be more than delighted to join you!

Overseas shoot is more than just a photoshoot - it's more of an experience that we create together. From chilling in camper vans and having heart to heart talks to cooking in random carparks and determining who eats the "paiseh" piece during dinner - anything that can happen it becomes part of our friendship at the end of the trip.

Destination pre-wedding by the locals

Many consider local pre-weddings as too mainstream but put off the idea of having an overseas shoot due to the high cost of flying a photographer over from Singapore. At the same time, hiring a local photographer at your destination can be rather risky and it involves extensive planning and coordination.

We got you covered! These packages are specially created for the following destinations photographed by our very talented overseas photographers, all photos colour-edited by us in Singapore to create the consistent colour and style that you love.

Bali, Indonesia

Bangkok, Thailand

Dalat, Vietnam

Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam
